

SVP, Chief Human Resources Officer

Mike Voigt

Mike Voigt is SVP and Chief Human Resources Officer for Mavenir. Mike is responsible for all aspects of the Company's human resources agenda including talent management and development, compensation, benefits and employee relations.

Over the course of his career, Mike has held several international and global human resources roles including living and working in both France and Switzerland. Immediately prior to Mavenir, Mike was Vice President of Global Human Resources for Galderma, a globally managed skin health business of the Nestle Group. In this role, Mike led human resources efforts for the Company's global commercial markets and business units. While at Galderma, Mike also held the roles of Director, Global Compensation and Benefits and Head of Human Resources for North America. Prior to Galderma, Mike held HR leadership roles with Lexicon Pharmaceuticals and MCIWorldcom.

Mike received his Bachelors degree in Business Administration from Oklahoma State University and is a Certified Compensation Professional (CCP), as well as, a Certified Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR).